- 8.3 The supporting documents attached to the curricula vitæ must be submitted in the original language they were issued. These documents must be translated into Portuguese or English if these are not their languages of origin;
- 8.4 The candidate must provide the documents mentioned in sub-paragraphs c, d), e), f), and g) of paragraph 8.1 of this notice duly identified in digital format (6/six flash drives). The candidates are responsible for ensuring that the digital files submitted are readable and correctly identified;
- 8.5 Candidates must organize their curricula vitae according to the assessment parameters, weightings, and criteria approved by the Jury of this tender to allow the easy identification of their different elements and the analysis of their relationship with the respective assessment parameters;

8.6 - Candidates must provide documentary evidence that their curricular elements fit into the parameters defined by the Jury, bearing in mind that the same curricular element may not be weighted in more than one parameter/criterion/subcriterion.

9- Exclusion from the tender:

- 9.1 Failure to present the documents required under the terms of this notice or their presentation after the deadline results in the exclusion of the application.
- 9.2 The submission of false documents will result in immediate exclusion from the tender and participation to the competent authorities for purposes of criminal prosecution.
- 10 Candidates who do not meet the admission requirements will be excluded, being previously notified of this decision via email to allow for a "Hearing of Interested Parties" to be conducted under the terms of the Administrative Procedural Law.
- 11 The original documents provided by the candidates will be returned upon request, one year after the termination of this tender, except if the tender has been subjected to judicial objection, in which case the documents will be returned after the jurisdictional decision is made.

12 - Preliminary evaluation and public hearings:

Following the preliminary evaluation of the curricula vitæ of the admitted candidates, the Jury may decide to hold public hearings, in which case all candidates will be informed via email with delivery receipt of the date, time, and place of the public hearings at least five working days in advance.

- 13 Once the applications' admission phase is concluded, the Jury will deliberate on their approval or rejection based on absolute merit, voting by roll-call and justifying their vote. Abstentions are not allowed. Candidates who obtain a favorable vote from more than half of the voting jury members will be considered approved with absolute merit.
- 14 According to the terms of article no. 3 (4) of Decree-Law no. 112/2021, of 14 December, the approval with absolute merit depends on the fulfillment of the following requirements established by the Scientific-Technical Board:

Absolute merit requirements approved by the ESEnfC's Scientific-Technical Board, according to the terms of article no. 3 (4) of Decree-Law no. 112/2021, of 14 December:

- A. Scientific performance: to have published five (5) articles in indexed scientific journals throughout their teaching career and to be a researcher integrated into an active structuring project of the Health Sciences Research Unit: Nursing (UICISA: E);
- B. Pedagogical capacity: to have higher education teaching experience in at least one (1) course unit (unidade curricular UC) of one academic semester for two years, effectively teaching at least 50% of the expected hours of the UC sheet, and to have presented a UC proposal with pedagogical rationale;
- C. Performance in other relevant activities: to have participated in a school body, office, or institutional committee, or to have held a statutory position, or to have participated in community extension projects or formally constituted working groups, or to have been part of the governing body of a public or charitable entity.
- 15 Assessment and ranking parameters based on relative merit, respective weightings, and final assessment system:
- 15.1 Methods, parameters, criteria, and evaluation system and final classification (established under the terms of article no. 7 of Order no. 6279/2019, of 9 July):

The following parameters will be considered in the candidate's curricular evaluation:

- a) The candidate's qualifications (Q) will be assessed based on her/his academic and training path and considering the following criteria:
  - The academic degrees obtained in Psychology or Sociology;
  - Specialized training, specialization, postgraduate training, and/or advanced training.
- b) The candidate's technical-scientific and professional performance (DTCP) will be assessed based on the analysis of their most relevant works and activities in the subject area of Social Sciences, particularly among those highlighted as the most representative, considering the following criteria:
  - i. Scientific publications;
  - ii. Scientific and technological dissemination activities;
  - iii. Participation in R&D projects;
- c) The candidate's pedagogical capacity (CP) will be assessed based on the quality and extension of their previous teaching career and considering the following criteria:
  - UC coordination positions held, the UCs lectured, and the types of classes taught in the different cycles of studies and non-degree programs of Nursing education, including the elaboration of pedagogical materials;

- ii. Supervision of master's theses or doctoral dissertations, post-doctoral studies, and participation in academic examinations juries;
- iii. The project of development of scientific-pedagogical competencies.
- d) Other activities relevant to the ESEnfC's mission (OAR) will be assessed based on the candidate's individual activities, considering:
  - i. Service provision and consultancy;
  - ii. Positions held and functions performed in higher education institutions;
  - iii. Professional, cultural, and social activities, or others the candidate may consider relevant but that were not included in previous parameters.
- 15.2 Each ranking parameter is scored using a scale from 0 to 100 points.
- 15.3 Each parameter's score results from the sum of the scores obtained in the respective criteria.
- 15.4 The Final Score ( $Pontuação\ Final\ PF$ ) results from applying the following formula:  $PF = (0.10\ Q + 0.30\ DTCP + 0.40\ CP + 0.20\ OAR)$ .
- 15.5 The Final Classificação Final CF) is expressed using a centesimal scale from 0 to 20 and results from converting the PF to this scale.
- 15.6 In case of a tie between candidates, the following tiebreak criteria will be applied consecutively: 1) Best score in the sum between DTCP and CP; 2) Best score in the CP; 3) Best score in the DTCP; 4) Best score in the OAR.
- 16- The candidates approved with absolute merit are ranked in descending order of the classification obtained as a result of the application of the final assessment system.
- 17 The Jury's minutes with the applications' final evaluation system based on the parameters, criteria, and weightings, as well as the ranking grid, will be published at the designated places on the ESEnfC facilities and on the ESEnfC's website and made available to the candidates whenever requested.
- 18 The tender's minutes, documents, and ranking grids will be available to the candidates whenever requested.
- 19 All communication with the candidates within the scope of this tender is made by email to the address indicated by them in their application. All emails will be sent with a delivery receipt.
